

Enjoy the gallery of images and videos of our students, Lynn Blake and legends of the game! To view the videos, make sure you check the "Remember Me" box when logging into the site.

Below is a compelling comparison. When it was originally posted, Lynn commented, "At no time did I attempt to copy Ben's swing. I simply built my swing according to the principles of The Golfing Machine®, and this is what I got!"

The comparison also illustrates the interactive nature of this site and its worldwide membership. The Hogan sequence was posted by Annikan in the USA. The Blakesequence was taken by Mark during a Lynn Blake Golf Academy in Germany.

The sizing and layout was done by our friend, Mathew, in Scotland.

Is this a cool place or what?
