

(Forum userid: hunter)

Rob Noel, GSEM, PGA

Louisiana native Rob Noel started his teaching career in 1987 after completing his education at the San Diego Golf Academy. He returned to his home state a year later as Director of Instruction at Lakewood Country Club. In 1992, he created The Rob Noel Golf Academy after moving to Bayou Oaks in New Orleans. His tenure at Money Hill Golf & Country Club in Abita Springs began in 1999. Rob's peers recognized him twice, in 1993 and 2000, as the Gulf States Teacher of the Year. Complementing his latest recognition was his listing in Golf Digest Magazine (2000 & 2003) as "Best Teacher in Louisiana." Players of all levels have significantly improved their games through Rob's focused instruction. Included as students are PGA Tour players Brian Watts, 1998 British Open runner-up and Kelly Gibson, thirteen-year tour veteran and Nationwide Tour two-time winner. Others that have sought Rob's instruction include: tour veterans Grant Waite, John Reigger, Scott Verplank, and Kevin Wentworth. Rob is a GSEM Authorized Instructor of The Golfing Machine by Homer Kelly and has also been a member of the PGA of America since 1989.

rob@robnoelgolfacademy.com